REFERRAL FORM 2025

Family Story Continued:

We came to Minnesota because of our living situation. We were fortunate enough to have the money to move out here and make a decent living. If we would've stayed in California, we probably would've been homeless. When we moved out here, we were blessed to meet many kind and generous individuals who helped me and my husband. Us as a family, we have always been grateful for those willing to lend a helping hand. We as a family have always given everyone the benefit of the doubt. We love to joke around. Dark humor is how we've managed to get through our toughest times. Being together is the most important thing me and my husband have incorporated in our daughter's life. Every day we take as is and in our home our saying is: a house is for free expression not first impressions.
